

RELO BINGO!

GAME RULES

Game is run like Bingo. Consists of 40 relocation terms on a 4x4 card. Game manager, North American Van Lines, will pull 10 terms randomly at posted times on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Players must come by the North American booth (563) to see what the winning terms are for each drawing. If they have 4 of the drawn terms in a straight line on their card (horizontal, vertical or diagonal) and are one of the first two players to present a winning card at the booth for that drawing, they win the prize for that drawing. Two winners per drawing. Game is progressive; players can use terms from previous draws towards winning the game.

1. One card per player at a time.
2. Players can exchange cards at any time.
3. Card holder/player must bring winning card to North American booth him/herself to claim prize

4. 2 prizes per drawing; first two winning cards presented at North American booth are the prize winners
5. RELO Bingo is a “progressive” game, which means players can use terms drawn from prior games to win. However, players will only get the drawn terms for each game if they personally stop by the North American booth for each drawing. When terms for each “game” are drawn, the prior terms are taken off the board.
6. One prize per player
